2020 CCCFLC Conference: TBD (help us decide!)

May 18, 2020

THANK YOU!

Our 2019 Conference was a solid success thanks to our wonderful host at Rio Hondo and thanks to all of you who attended! We were all stimulated with new ideas about how to approach online teaching, among other topics in our breakout sessions. If there's interest, we'd like to see you again in 2020!

OUR FALL 2020 CONFERENCE – TO HAVE OR NOT TO HAVE—THAT IS THE QUESTION!

We've decided to postpone our 30th anniversary celebration of the CCCFLC due to the current situation. What we are trying to determine now is whether or not to hold our annual CCCFLC conference this year. Your input will help us make that decision.

We are looking at three possibilities:

1. A one-day virtual (online) conference
2. A series of virtual presentations
3. No conference/presentations

1. A one-day virtual conference:

This would take place on Saturday, October 24, 2020 via Zoom. As always, we would put out a call for presentations. We would plan for a keynote speaker and two to three breakout sessions, each potentially with multiple presenters. All presentations would be recorded and later posted on our website for viewing. Free (no charge)

2. A series of virtual presentations:

The first presentation would take place on Saturday, October 24, 2020 via Zoom, and we would host monthly presentations for as long as there are individuals interested in presenting. All presentations would be recorded and later posted on our website for viewing. Free

3. No conference/presentations:

We would wait until fall of 2021 to host our next conference.

Please help us determine what to do by completing a brief (6-question) survey at your earliest convenience. Be sure to click on the Submit button at the bottom after you complete the form:
