Dear CCCFLC Members,

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

We hope everyone's semester is going well and you are enjoying or will soon enjoy the Spring Recess.

As previously announced, this year's conference will be held at LA Valley College on Saturday, October 21st, from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. We hope to see everyone!

This year, our keynote will be "The Synchronicity of Teaching Asynchronously," a panel discussion highlighting best practices from experienced instructors, including three of our CCCFLC officers, Dana Arazi, Karen Le Cornet and Adrienne Merlo. If anyone else is interested in being on the panel, please let us know!

Additionally, we are looking for presenters. As always, we hope to offer 6-9 presentations on current topics affecting our field. Even if you do not plan to present, please let us know if you have any suggestions for topics you would like to see addressed at the conference. For example, one of our members suggested offering a presentation on linguistics for foreign language majors. Please let us know if you have any further suggestions or requests. Thank you.

Lastly, for those who are interested in presenting, we ask that you complete the application at your earliest convenience, 2023 CCCFLC Presentation Application. Note, for anyone that is considering presenting but might not have their ideas finalized, you may submit a provisional application that may be edited later.

Have a wonderful Spring Semester and we look forward to seeing everyone in October!

In the spirit of collaboration and mutual support, for any CCCFLC members who would like to advertise an organization or event related to teaching foreign languages, this area is now designated for sharing such information.
